

Degree Maps and Guaranteed Courses

Sarah Ancel
Associate Commissioner for Policy and Legislation

What is a degree map?

- Semester-by-semester list of courses to take to graduate on time
- Customized for each student
- Updated regularly
- Tied to registration

What is on a map?

- Description of major
- Career resources tied to major
- Expected on-time graduation date
- Courses by semester (list for electives)
- Milestone courses and actions identified
- Notice of financial aid completion requirements
- Notice of free course guarantee

What is the free course guarantee?

- Institutions shall make courses available to students
- Students who follow map but find course unavailable get:
 - New map with that course in a different semester
 OR
 - Course for free in future semester

Eligibility for Free Course

- Student followed map in prior semesters
- Student unable to register for course
 - Course is full, offered at same time as other mapped course, or not offered that semester
 - All sections are full and online not available
 - Student attempted to register during priority registration
 - Student is not outside of 150 percent program length

Extended-Time Maps

- Situations in which it is permissible to extend the map past on-time:
 - Change major after year 1
 - Declared double major
 - Not admitted to competitive-admission major
 - In approved programs exceeding 60/120 hours
 - Shift pathway transferring from 2-year to 4-year
 - Identified as needing more than 6 remedial credits
 - Not meeting SAP; failing or withdrawing
 - Facing military deployment, other special circumstance

Suggested Practices

- "Choose your major" workshop
- Broad interest areas for undecided students
- Suggested "best fit" electives
- Seamless link between map and registration
- Mandatory meetings with advisor for "offmap" students
- Proactive course scheduling based on map data
